DEDICATION

MR. THEODORE TCHACK

We of the Senior Class know him as an outstanding English teacher. Perhaps some of us do not realize that for the past three years he has given unselfishly of his time and energy behind the scenes of the Yearbook. He has advised and encouraged the Staff and has given unstinting effort to make the SHORELINE possible.

It is with the greatest admiration, appreciation, and affection that we dedicate the 1963 Shoreline to MR. THEODORE TCHACK.

"Remember When"

Way back in 1959, one hundred and seventy students entered the Freshman class, thus beginning a constant whirl of events to last us through four wonderful years. Remember that horror of a movie "Hit the Deck"? Well, at least we made money. Then there was the Winter Wonderland Christmas Dance where a kid named Eddie Carfero sang. Remember how proud we all were when Jimmy, Rusty and George moved up from the Freshman basketball team to J.V. in mid-season? Somehow we staggered through David Copperfield that year and wound everything up with our prom, "Paris in the Spring" What fun we had toasting the bread sticks over the candles!

Sophomore year brought bigger and better things. They let us attend Senior High assemblies, not to mention dances. We gave two of our own dances; remember "Pilgrim Rock" and "April Showers"? That was the year we discovered the fun of renting a jukebox. The Highlight of 10th grade was our field trip to see "Ben Hur." The girls dreamt of Charlton Heston for months after. We became money-minded with our card sales. We groaned through "Silas Marner." Final event: Class Picnic!

Juniors! Attending Open House Parties was a constant pastime. We sailed through Moby Dick and sponsored a Sadie Hawkins dance. More Christmas Cards, and we all got sick on jelly donuts galore. High Spots: the prom, "Blue Hawaii" (remember the falling gate?) and that memorable day when we received our senior rings. Low spot: P.S.A.T.'s. Then suddenly we arrived! Believe it or not we were:

Seniors! "Anyone want to buy a pretzel?" We sold refreshments at every home game and sponsored the "Country Fair Square Dance" Whatever happened to the kissing booth? Then came Senior pictures and being measured for caps and gowns. Candy sales drove everybody crazy, especially Mrs. Esposito and Mr. Robertson. Remember how we felt the day we got our hats and pins? Now everyone would know just how the top bananas in this school were! We managed "Macbeth" and good old Chaucer. Then came college applications and job interviews to increase the anxiety. We'll always remember the smashing success of the Variety Show and the fun we had at rehearsals. And who could ever forget that night of magic at the "Four Winds"?

The year passes quickly and we're faced, all too soon, with the prospect of leaving Seaford High. As we look back over our four years here, we tend to forget the homework, exams, rules, and problems, remembering only the fun, the dances, parties, sports, and good times. That's the way it should be, because after all, we'll have to admit that these were the very best years of our lives.

CLAIRE ACCOLLA

. . . to my successor as Senior Editor the privilege of reading the Class Will uncensored.

BETTY ROHR

. . . my bookkeeping ambition and my nickname "Lacy" to Mr. Dunham.

BETTE ROGERS

. . . my bottom locker to any 6'3" guy who wants exercise in bending.

DONNA DANIELSON

. . . give all Seaford teachers peace and quiet.

LARRY PERSSON

. . . a year's supply of steerburgers to my driving instructor, Mr. Robertson.

CAROL HENDRICKSON

. . . my sister with six wonderful, miserable years yet to go.

BARRY ROTHBERG

. . . control over the students to the lunch room teachers.

KATHY O'MALLEY

. . . my locker to the next poor person who has to put 3 people's possessions in it.

JEANNE AMATO

. . . Tammy my lunch hour with the boys.

JILL NELSON

. . . Carol Wallace another month.

RUDOLF ADAMEK

. . . Mr. Tchack a portable top button.

BARBARA VERITY

. . . so a new Decca President can give Mr. Hallenbeck gray hair.

BARBARA JENNISON

. . . Mr. Robertson another frustrating driver who won't be able to ride the clutch.

ARTHUR HENKEL

. . . Bruce Bernard some friends.

JIM GIBSON

. . . Mr. Kronenberg a jar of that greasy kid stuff.

JOHN AGNITTI

. . . for definite uncertainty.

STEVE FREESE

. . . Joe Trubia one year's supply of animal food to feed the zoo in front of his house.

PAM LEVINE

... Mr. Robertson a watch so he will know what time to come in from driving.

CONNIE SHAFF

... Judy Klym a "blink" in Spanish, and to Enid Bate, Mr. Horowitz's dirty test tubes.

KATHLEEN BALMER

... Mr. Boglioli my unfinished Office Practice sets and my Typing Awards.

JO ANN BARRESI

... Liz Harrington to Mr. Dunham.

JANET WEAVER

BRUCE THURSTON

... Mr. Kaelin a new school-bag to carry his lunch.

BERNIE SCHAEFER

... Alan McCartney the name and address of my cobbler for when he grows into my title.

MIKE THEOFEL

... Seaford, with a sarcastic grin on my face.

BILL HAAS

... Pat Sauer to Bob Roller.

ANGELA ARENA

... Mr. Boglioli the adhesive tape he is always threatening me with.

MARGARET MASON

... Margaret Maron my nickname "Moose".

CELIA ROLDAN

... Mr. DeFeis three cans of A & P Tuna Fish, a can of Schlitz, and a butterroll to nourish him during a show.

DIANE GRANER

... Mr. Robertson a brake — till the new Granek comes along.

CAROL KREISS

... one brother to any unfortunate teacher who may get him.

GENE TAMBOR

... Mr. McCabe $1,000 in Federal Aid in order to help increase his salary.

FRANK FRANDSEN

... Mr. Ferrara a Barney Fife detective kit to find B.B.'s mark.

EDWARD J. WARD

... wishing the senior will wasn't censored.

PEG CONNOR

... Mr. Peterson "a little thick Irish".

CHARLES BEGLEY

... my senior privileges, whatever they may be, to some lucky Junior.

SHARYN L. BEERS

... to the next Senior Class a Will of Their Own.

GUS ALBA

... with a sarcastic smile, while dwelling on the thought of "hall duty".

WILLIAM MEEKS

... Mr. Tchack in peace.

PAT HAVERBUSCH

... Miss Larkin all the parts of the radiator in Room 217.

SHARON LOWRY

... Mr. Harrington my musical ability, may he rest in peace, and I hereby prophesy that within four years my sister will be as good as I am.

RITA SOUTO

... as fast as I can.

BARBARA ROHN

... my share in the purchase of an alarm clock to Miss Larkin. Umph?

JUDI LANZISERA

... my pigtails and feckles to Uncle Larry, and my knee socks to any Junior with cold feet.

DANIEL STONE

... for better or for worse.

VERONICA CONDRON

... Mr. Curtis one safety seat belt.

BARBARA MASCHKE

... Mr. Harrington one dizzy blond, and Larry Rotkin a set of rabbit ears.

PAT HOERT

... Mr. Curtis another Frustrating Driver.

DEL LUMBERT

... the upcoming seniors my old physics papers in order that they may benefit from my mistakes as I have benefited from others'.

GEORGE FLETCHER

... my '55 Ford to Mr. Fries.

MARGARET FISHER

... Mr. Robertson a book entitled "How to Appreciate Women Drivers".

JANIS WETTERER

... my brother, John, to face another "fun-filled" year of school.

MARGIE COHEN

... Mr. DeFeis 100 copies of an "all-essay" test to mark, and I prophesy that he will someday win an Oscar.

ED LUEBKERT

... my animal cage to John Fox.

FERN MACHLOWITZ

... Mr. Robertson the money I owe him for stalling.

PATT FAGAN

... my locker in the music wing unused.

JAMES HERRMANN

... a blond-color comb to Mr. McIntyre.

JAMES KRIEG

... Mr. Hallenbeck a lifetime honorary membership to the Hewlett Temple Beth El Hadassah.

GEORGE ESPOSITO

... one book, "Password made easy", to any future varsity basketball players.

WILLIAM B. BALMER

... Mr. Andolf all the wool I've pulled over his eyes in the last two years.

MARIE GILBERTO

... "The Case of the Missing Locks" yet unsolved.

BRUCE KLIPPEL

... Mr. McIntyre a tie of the great star constellations

HANK SPRING

... Bruce Klippel about 10 years to corner the sheep market in order to fulfill his will.

CONNIE RONNQUIST

... Mr. Manso a full course meal for all the ones I've had in the band room.

JANE DONOVAN

... Mr. Sullivan one of my insulting looks.

JOHN TURNER

... Mr. Dunham a book entitled "How to Play Winning Soccer".

RUSSELL DRIVER

... the Auto Shop a mechanic's nightmare — any '59 Bonneville.

JUDY SOLTON

... my title of Miss Viking.

GAIL COLE

... my cousin, Kathy Keller, my place in Miss Miele's heart.

CARL C. NYGREN

... my boots and blanket to Mr. Peterson's Rifle Team.

DONNA FRING

... my Geometry notes to Colleen.

PAT BARKER

... with great vigor, knowing my sister, Irene, will leave that way too, in five more years.

MARDI

On February 9, 1963, the class of '64 held the annual Junior Prom. The theme of the Prom was Mardi Gras and the fabulously colorful decorations added to the atmosphere of excitement.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the King and Queen (Jeff Borer and Diane Eich). The royal couple reigned over their loyal court (Patricia Sauer, Gene Turner, Rich Baldino, and Lorraine Hennigler) for the remainder of the enchanted evening.

On February 15th and 16th, 1963, the Tackapausha Players presented Harvey, the well known comedy by Mary Chase. During the weeks of rehearsal, Harvey, the six foot, one and a half inch, rabbit, became a much talked about character here at Seaford.

Members of the cast and crew had a ball both in preparation and performance, and the show was greeted with welcome enthusiasm on the part of the audience. Harvey's perforated hat still hangs — in the sound room — as he joins the list of Seaford's favorite — people?!

The 1963 Viking football season was the most successful one in the last few years. The Vikings wound up the year with a record of five wins and three losses. A passing attack, with quarterback Jim Valvano doing the pitching, was installed this year by coach Harry Curtis. This, along with outstanding line play, helped to account for the team's fine showing. The 63 season was highlighted when three Viking players were picked by the competing coaches to be on the all-league team. These were quarterback Jim Valvano, end Rusty Hoverman, and tackle Leo Rigaud.

Basketball 1963

VARSIITY SCHEDULE

The 1963 Viking cage season was sort of a disappointment. Coach Valano expected a better showing than our nine and nine record. The season was highlighted by two victories over arc-rival Wantagh. With these victories we were able to keep in our possession the highly cherished Mace and Tomahawk. Seaford's outstanding player was Jim Valvano. The high scoring forward was named to the SSAL IV all-league team.

Although this year's wrestling team did not do quite as well as last year's, it nevertheless had an outstanding season. The Viking Grapplers finished second in their league with a record of 7 wins and 1 loss. They also had an overall record of 11 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. In the SSAL IV wrestling tournament, the Vikings finished second. In the tournament, the Vikings' Bob DeSantis, Leo Rigaud, and William Freese took first place in their respective weight classes. In addition, Joe Trubia and Fred Aaron finished second. Bob DeSantis climaxed an undefeated season by capturing first place in the sectional tournament and third in the county tournament. With many of the same grapplers returning next year, Coach Gerbino expects another good season.

With six players returning from last year's championship squad, the Vikings should be in for an outstanding season. Coach Harry Curtis expects to retain the league championship. An outstanding pitching staff, with Bob Berkel, Ferdie Sauer, Bill Gentz, and Jeff Borer doing the hurling, and a tight defensive infield held together by all-league shortstop Jim Valvano, should provide for an exciting team.

The Varsity Club is an organization formed to honor varsity athletes. To gain entry, one must earn a varsity letter and must also be voted in by the club's members. The club performs many helpful services to the school. They help to control congestion in the halls, supervise the running of the annual Mace-Tomahak Dance in cooperation with the Wantagh Key Club, and also award plaques to various coaches at the annual Dad's Club awards dinner. The Varsity Club is advised by Mr. Valvano.

Every high school has its outstanding athletes. The best of these athletes are often named to an all-league or all-county team. It is rare when an individual is named to three such teams. This year at Seaford we have such a person in Jim Valvano. Jim, a senior, has been named to the all-league baseball, basketball, and football teams. He was also named as all-county shortstop in baseball and just missed being all-county quarterback in football. Jim has been flocked by college offers but has limited his choices to Colby College, Albright College, and Rutgers University. Seaford High School pays its tribute to Jim Valvano.

The Girls Athletic Association is the self governed body that sponsors physical education activities for girls. There are no requirements for club participation, thus, all may enjoy their benefits. Awards are given in June to all girls who have earned a required number of points by attendance and team membership.

The Leaders Club is the honor organization of the Girls Athletic Association. It has been established to provide opportunity for exceptional girls to grow in all phases of living — leadership, and helpfulness, dependability, understanding of other people, knowledge and maturity. The Leaders Club is dedicated to honor, service, and understanding.

Leaders serve one period a week as assistants in the physical education classes. They are assigned to teach one lesson in each sport and act as referees during squad competition in team sports. Leaders must also be willing to give one additional hour of service a week to the physical education department.
